LOCAL MARKETS.

SATURDAY, June 24.—The local wheat market has undergone no change for the past three weeks, when it dropped to the unprecedented price of 62 cents. The market continues weak. But little is moving and it is hard to get at market value, millers and speculators not being anxious to invest very heavily. Farmers say they will carry what wheat they have over into the next crop rather they have over into the next crop rather than sell at present low prices. Conse-quently they are selling almost noth-ing. They are waiting for better prices, which at present are not even foreshadowed. Corn and oats are slow and somewhat depressed and transactions are light. Flour does not advance nor recode, while milistuffs is secking a lower level daily, owing to the superabundance of grass for feeding purposes. The mills keep running along in the same old way, working, as some miller said, "for fun." Sugars and all kinds of groceries are firm, no changes having taken place the past week. The same can be said of hay, meats, poultry and fish, which are in good supply. Celery is in good sup-ply at 25 cents per dozen bunches. New beets are held at 35 cents per dozen bunches. Strawberries are of good quality and very cheap. Vegetables of all kinds are in abundance at reasonable

Twenty Thousand Christian Men

The twelfth Gubernatorial Christian Endeavor convention is to be held this year at Montreal, opening Wednesday, July 5, and closing Sunday, July 9. The phenomenal growth of the Y. P. S. C. E. since its humble origin twelve years ago in a Maine parsonage has ranked it among the yearly events of pational importance to church societies and railroad managements, to thousands of delagates and the public, who wonders and questions concerning the methods and reasons of these annual gatherings. General interest was first excited last summer when 32,000 delegates of societies located in America, Europe, Asia and Africa and an immense following of unofficial visitors flocked to New York. They packed the auditorium of Madison square garden—the largest audience hall on the continent—and overflowed in groups of a thousand and more into the neighboring churches. The last mass meetings were held simultaneously in Madison Square garden, Carnegie hall, the Metropolitan opera house and eight churches. Hotel managers, boarding house keepers and hospitable Christians were put to it to accommodate an influx of people which astonished even flexible New York, The twelfth Gubernatorial Christian accommodate an influx of people which astonished even flexible New York, nithough a canvass had been made for the entertainment of visitors. With this in mind the C. E. managers of the convention in Montreal are already making extensive preparations for the thousands of young men and women expected in July.

The hotels can accommodate but a few of the delegates; a personal house-to-house canvass of private houses is in progress. An authoritative statement gives the rate in boarding houses and private families from seventy-five cents to one dollar and twenty-five cents without meals and from one dollar and fifty cents to two dollars and fifty cents with them.

A hospitable idea is that which provides for the reception of guests by a committee which will send scouts to meet each incoming train and boat one hundred miles from Montreal and escort travelers to the city. The members of the committee will wear white yachting caps to distinguish them in the midst of big crowds.

Meetings will be held in Drill hall, a fireproof building, seating 9,000 people, and in an immense tent pitched across the street, seating 8,000. This does not provide for the overflow a cettings; they will be held in various churches simultaneously with the regular programme of the two main halls.

The chairman of the convention is Dr. Francis E. Clark-"Further Endeavor" Clark, as he is known among the members of the society he has founded and fostered. The general secretary is John Willis Baer, a young man who was prominent last year and has identified himself heart and soul with the society. There are numberless conference committees, branch and anboummittees, besides officers and committees to govern the various branches. The leaders include scores of preminent ministers and more hy-men than have ever before appeared upon a Christian Endeavor convention programme. The programme is so elaborate that the endeavorers will be forced to se-lect those parts in which they are most interested to the enclusion of many others. Some of the speakers will dicuse the following topics, included in the general programme.

The Wednesday evening meetings will be held in the four largest churches of Montreal. They are called "Pre-paratory," since the first hour will be devoted to prayer. The meetings will close with simultaneous addresses in the four churches by Rev. Theodore L. Cuyler, D. D., of Brooklyn, on "The Prayer that Has Power, Rev. J. Wilbur Chapman, D. D. the evangelist, on "Receiving the Holy Ghost for Power," Rt. Rev. M. S. Baldwin, D. D., bishop of Huron, on "Individual Consecration," and Rev. Frank M. Bristol. D. D.,

of Chicago, on the "Secret of Power."

The exercises Thursday morning will be opened by the usual "early prayer meetings," which are held every day of the convention. Following will be three or four addresses of welcome in Drill hail. The dominion go erament will be represented by Hox. George E. Foster, minister of finance; the city pastors, by Rev. Mactilivery; the Y. M. C. A.,

of Vo's oor mistor.

Thursday inferences will be devoted to Junior C. E., under the charge of Mrs. Francis Clark, who has been as active in this work as her husband. Dr. Wayland Hoyt, D. D. of Minneagolis; Miss Katy H. Hairs, of St. Louis, and J. W. Cowan, the first paster to organize a junior C. E. society, will give addresses.

the secretary's report will be given Thursday evening, alternately in Drill hall and the tent. Following these will be the presentation of banners to the state which during the year has made the greatest absolute gain in the number of societies.

Friday's speakers include some of the most brilliant men who attend the convention. How, W. E. P. Breckinridge, of Louisville, Ky., will deliver an address on "The Age and Its Possibilities," in lieu of that which he was prevented from giving in New York. The tent speakers will be Bishop Arnett, D. D., of Vicksburg, representative of the African church, on "Christian Steward's Tip," and lastly, Rev. David J. Burrell, D. D., of New York, on "Good Citizenship."

Subjects for several discussions Friday morning will be: The five essen tials of a C. E. society. It is possible that the foreign representatives will largely occupy the time. No sessions will be held in the Drill hall and the tent during the afternoon. "Commit-will be held in the Drill hall and the tent during the afternoon. "Committee conferences" will be held in the churches instead.

Saturday morning will be given to missions. Missionary literature will be discussed by Mr. S. L. Mershon, of Evanston, Ill.; "Missionary Meeting" by Miss Ella MacLauin, of Chicago, and lastly, a "Free Parliament," conand lastly, a "Free Parliament," con-sisting of a great number of speeches one and one-half minutes long, will be conducted by Bev. Gilbert Reid, of China.

Saturday afternoon will be the time of friendly rivalry in the denominational rallies held in Montreal's churches. The chairman of the denominational conferences will make all the reports all the reports.

At Drill hall in the evening, the rollcall of states, provinces and foreign lands fills the first half of the evening, to be followed by an address on "In-ternational Fellowship," by Rev. George Wells, D. D., of Minneapolis. In the tent will be held a most interesting session known as the pastor's hour. Speeches are but one and one-hour. Speeches are but one and onehalf minutes long. The closing address on "The Christian Endeavor Socicty a Typical Church Institution," will be delivered by Rev. Kerr B. Tupper, D. D., of Denver, Col. Sunday, the last day of the convention, will be as crowded as the most enthusiastic delegates can desire.

In the morning the Christian Endeavorers will be expected to attend church. The first regular meetings of the convention will begin in Drill hall and the last at 1:30 p. m. "Gospel Temperance" will be discussed by Mrs.
Frances Barnes, superintendent of the National Y. W. C. T. U.; "The Religious Press," by Rev. Hooke, editor of the Independent, London, England;
"Foes to Society, Church and the State," by Anthony Comstock.

In the Drill hall meeting T. E. Murphy, the temperance evangelist, will
